UNION GAME SCORE

The official score of the Union game, which was unobtainable last week, is here printed.

UNION (10)		HAMILTON (28)
Buck	Right Forward	Allen
Starbuck	Left Forward	Roenke
Wicks	Centre	Sherwin
Brown	Right Guard	Wilson
Leon	Left Guard	Smith (Welch)

Baskets, Buck 1, Starbuck 1, Leon 1, Allen 3, Roenke 3, Sherwin 2, Wilson 2. Fouls, Starbuck 2, Allen 8. Scorer, Sicard. Umpire, Williams. Referee, Corticus.

WILLIAMS GAME

In the second game of the basketball trip Hamilton met defeat by a score of 42 to 21. The Williams team, however, is considered exceptionally fast this year, having played a tie game with Syracuse, and this defeat is in no way discreditable. In fact, many papers commented favorably on the showing made. Not a foul was called on Hamilton in this game, which is a rather remarkable fact. Sherwin and Hopkins did Hamilton's best work, covering well. Sherwin had his eye with him also and raked in five pretty baskets. Captain Smith was, unfortunately, not able to play this game, as the rough work his injured knee received in the Union game prevented it.

The line-up follows:

WILLIAMS (42)		HAMILTON (21)
Lambie	Right Forward	Allen
Lewis	Left Forward	Roenke
Horrax	Center	Sherwin
Templeton (Capt.)	Right Guard	Welch
Oakley (Waters)	Left Guard	Hopkins

Baskets, Lambie 1, Lewis 12, Horrax 3, Templeton 3, Waters 2, Allen 1, Roenke 1, Sherwin 5, Welch 1. Fouls, Allen 5.

Referee ,Metzdorf; Umpire, Williams. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

THE RUTGERS GAME

Last Friday evening the 'Varsity met Rutgers at New Brunswick in the third game of the trip. The game was won by Hamilton, 38 to 24. The first half was very slow, not a man playing basketball, so that it ended 16 to 15 in favor of Rutgers. While the team guarded well, the passing was poor. The signals did not work, the men failing to get their positions.

In the second half the team speeded up wonderfully, making good on signals, covering, and playing good basketball in general.

The Rutgers men did not play exceptionally well, but their centre was much better than the rest. For the 'Varsity, Hopkins, Roenke and Allen surpassed.

That the team could go in and win a game in the second half is very praiseworthy. They had traveled ten hours Friday and were not in the best condition. All during the trip the team played exceptionally well, and their two victories show that their playing is of a high order.

The line-up follows:

HAMILTON (38)		RUTGERS (24)
Allen	Right Forward	Best
Roenke	Left Forward	Segaine
Sherwin	Centre	Van Kenran (Fisher)
Welch	Right Guard	Hovey
Smith (Hopkins)	Left Guard	Rice

Goals, Allen 9, Roenke 5, Sherwin 3, Welch 1, Best 1, Segaine 1, Fisher 1, Hovey 7, Rice 1. Fouls, Allen 2, Segaine 2.

Umpire, Ewing; Referee, Williams; Scorer, Springstead. Length of halves, 20 minutes.

THE C. C. N. Y. GAME

Last Saturday night the eastern trip ended after three games, with the final contest with the City College of New York. The New York team is very fast, and after three hard games Hamilton's team was not in the best physical condition to play another hard, fast game. The first half ended 17-14 in favor of New York. This was a very good exhibition, for the play was fast throughout, and the guarding was good on both teams. The second half started off with a rush, and for some minutes it appeared that Hamilton would pull out a victory. But the fast play told on the men, and soon New York got the lead. The last half plainly showed the strain that Hamilton was under. For Hamilton Welch and Roenke played well, while Kaplan was best for New York. A large crowd of Hamilton men saw the game and kept things lively with cheering. The line-up:

HAMILTON (24)		C. C. N. Y. (42)
Allen	Right Forward	Streusand
Sherwin	Center	Kaplan

Left Guard

Wilson Perlman (Barron)

Right Guard

Welch Heskowitz

Referee, Deering; Umpire, Williams; Scorer, Gordon.

Goals, Strensand 4, Barbanall 1, Kaplan 8, Heskowitz, Goldman 3, Allen 1, Roenke 3, Sherwin 1, Welch 2. Fouls, Streusand 8, Allen 10.

The individual score of the men for the four games of the trip was as follows:

Allen 14	Opponent	10
Roenke 12	"	6
Sherwin 11	"	11
Smith	"	2
Welch 4	"	17
Wilson 2	"	5
Hopkins 0	"	2

AMONG THE COLLEGES

—Baseball practice has begun at Cornell with thirty men out in answer to the call.

—Kansas is to have a general engineering building, for which work has already begun.

—Brown University has set aside $1,000 for prizes to students who excel in mathematics.

—Colgate is planning an extensive baseball tour through the South during Easter vacation.

—Michigan's new football field is to be one of the finest in the West. The grandstand will seat 18,000 people.

—Cornell is engaged in a big campaign for a new gymnasium, the students having already subscribed $10,000 for this purpose.

—In the future all examinations at Columbia will be held in the gymnasium under the supervision of proctors detailed for the purpose.

—The Sophomores of Columbia defeatd the Freshmen in the annual cane spree this year. The present Sophomore class also won from the class of 1909.

—It has been announced at Cornell that in future all students wishing to enter the course leading to a degree in medicine must present a degree as an entrance requirement.

—A patron of a Colorado college has endowed the institution with a hundred pedigree cats. This doubtful benefaction is the gift of an enthusiastic advocate of cat culture.

—A club of Seniors is being formed at Princeton with the intention of taking up the study of the law. It is planned to have prominent jurists visit Princeton and address the club.

—Amherst is to receive $100,000 by the will of D. Willis James, the philanthropist, who left $1,000,000 to be divided among the colleges, universities, churches, and charitable organizations.

—Each member of the Syracuse University Band has been awarded an "S" interwoven with a trumpet. This insignia was awarded the men in recognition of their services at different athletic events.

—A California student who permitted the publication of an article which represented the girls of the University of California as smoking cigarettes, was divested of his clothes and covered with fly-paper.

—Because G. C. Taylor disapproved of the marriage of his housekeeper's daughter, Yale, Harvard, Williams, Princeton and Hobart lose $100,000 each, the money being now devoted to charitable causes.

—A restrictive policy has been adopted by the authorities of Williams. They have declared that too many games are played and most of these away from home, necessitating long trips. A gradual diminution of the number of games is the expected outcome of the present agitation.

—Colgate returned from a western trip including Oberlin, Ohio, Ohio Wesleyan, Allegheny, and Ohio State. including Oberlin, Ohio, Ohio Wesleyan, Allegheny, and Ohio State. They won only the last contest—35 to 20—attributing the other defeats to long jumps in travelling. Ohio State suffered its first defeat. The scores at Allegheny and Oberlin were not decisive.

TRACK COACH

Irving K. Baxter, of Utica, has been engaged by the Track management to coach and will enter upon his duties at once. He accompanied the relay team to the Olympics at Troy on Wednesday.

Mr. Baxter's ability as an athlete is unquestioned and he will make a most capable coach. He was at one time one of the most noted athletes in the country, being a member of the U. of P. and later of the New York Athletic Club team. In 1897 he won the American championship at high jumping with a record of 6ft. 3½in. in competition. He accompanied a team of American athletes on a tour of England, Ireland and France, and added to his laurels by victories in the high jump in those countries. Mr. Baxter is to devote himself to the work every day and with our promising material we may expect our track team to make a creditable showing in the spring meets.

1909 HAMILTONIAN

The Hamiltonian Board reports that it is hard at work and that such substantial advance has been made along original lines as to assure a book at least equal to the excellent volume put out by 1908. There will not be a literary deparment. However, this will be compensated by a wealth of college hits along the lines of the LIFE scurf and "Ye Tale of ye Classe in Chaucer" in last year's book.

There are to be more cuts and drawings with the intent of giving a good picture of the College and its life. The amount of work in the art department executed by College talent is encouraging. The best literary talent in 1909 is turned to the task of making that department interesting and collegiate in spirit. The cover will be tasty and artistic; the press-work can scarcely improve upon last year's Hamiltonian It is to be a Hamilton book if nothing else and the Board believes that by adhering to this plan it can produce the ideal college annual. The date set for its appearance is May first, but no guarantees are made.

YES, THE BOWLING ALLEYS are great. They are great in construction and great in management. And yet in our punctiliousness we are not satisfied. There is just one flaw in the whole system, which, though apparently small, is, nevertheless, we believe, very likely to prove productive of dissatisfaction. This is the present custom by which the five lowest in score must drop out of the game to make room for part of those who may be waiting. In the first place, when there are more than five in line the remainder must wait still longer, while the five who were highest in score continue indefinitely. That is easily remedied by enough getting out of the game to permit all who have been waiting to have an opportunity to play. This may often mean that every participant in the game must withdraw, but it is the only fair method. The other contingency is not so simple of solution—that in which it is necessary that only a portion of the participants withdraw. The unlucky ones in this case, we advocate, should be chosen by lot. Have, for instance, a box of ten numbered "pills," as in pool. Those who draw the highest numbers are the ones who can remain. In this way every one would have an equal chance. Ability should not privilege a few to maintain a monopoly. And why should not the unskilled be given as much opportunity as the experts? Were the alleys built for the "sharks" or for the College?

THE CONTINUAL POSTPONEMENT of the interclass games is a cause for regret. The advisability and desirability of interclass contests is generally conceded. But if we are going to make a farce of them, why have them at all or pretend to have them? Our position in this matter is almost ludicrous. We have played one out of a series of three games. As for the other two there seems but little chance of their ever being played. If we really want them, could not some suitable time be found? If we don't care whether they are played or not, let's not say that interclass basketball is played on this Hill. It isn't and won't be until some sentiment one way or the other is expressed.

BOWLING

Bowling has already become the most popular pastime on the Hill. Every afternoon and evening the alleys are crowded. Those who have bowled before are rapidly coming into form again in preparation for the College championship and the Interfraternity matches. Likewise the average scores of all are higher. Among those who promise to be factors in deciding the championship may be mentioned: Getman, '11; Sarles, '10; Coston, '11; Wilder, '11; Gouge, '11, and Richardson, '11. All these men are rolling in splendid form and close contests are assured when they hook up. Both the individual and interfraternity tournaments start Monday. The drawings for the individual tournament are: Love, '09-Richardson, '11; A. Holley, '08-Sarles, '10; Hull, '08-Riggs, '08; Peters, '11-Appleton, '09; G. Smith, '08-Wilder, 11; McAneny, '10-Butler, '09; C. Leavenworth, '09-Titus, '10; C. Stone, '10-McMartin, '08; Greengard, '08-Deimel, '10; Bryant, '09-Bate, '08; White, '08-Laird, '08; Sherwin, '10-Barber, '10; Brome, '09-Wills, '10; Hastings, '10-I. Hall, '10; A. Getman, '11-Kneeland, '09; Clark, '08-Bullion, '09; Allen, '08-Colson, '11; Simmons, '08-Wilcox, '09; Coston, '11-A. Osborne, '09; Cody, '08-Gouge, '11; Judson, '08-H. Holley, '08; McMath, '10-Getman, '09; Baldwin, '10-H. Osborne, '09; Wilson, '09-Henderson, '08; Leavenworth, '10-Nixon, '11; Rudd, '09-S. Jones, '08; Willoughby, '09-Soper, '08; Thomas, '09-Mitchell, '11; McLean, '08-Sidle, '11; Blodgett, '09-(————). Five more men are needed to make an even tournament of 64. Both contestants in a match do not necessarily have to be present at the same time. For instance, Love can bowl and put up his score, and when Richardson comes he can bowl and put up his score, and the high man of the two goes on through the tournament.

If the alleys are not cared for better they will be useless in a month. Not a stroke of work has been put on them since they were put in. The idea that they have to lie idle a day after being oiled is ridiculous. Those who should care for the alleys have been flagrantly negligent.

—The authorities of Lehigh are now considering whether the campus of the university shall be used as sites for fraternity houses. The objection is urged that they will be monuments of special classes and not representative.

ALUMNIANA

'79. The Shanghai [China] Times of January 15th gives an account of the closing exercises of a term at the International Institute, of which Rev. Gilbert Reid, '79, is director. The occasion resolved itself into a pleasant little function in the nature of a farewell reception to H. E. Wu Ting-Fang, the newly appointed Minister for China to the United States, and his nephew, W. S. Ho, Consul for China at Washington. Wu Ting-Fang is a warm supporter of the Institute, and delivered an interesting address in Chinese, exhorting the students to stick to their studies and not to go out into the world too early in the hope of making money. He also advised them to study where they were rather than go abroad. His remarks were listened to with great attention and a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Wu.

'04. "Ed" Carr is now at Russell, N. Y.

'05. E. J. Jordon, who has been studying law in Utica, has successfully passed his examinations for admission to the bar.

H. J. Snyder, ex-'08, now in Cornell Law School, is the author of this year's Cornell masque, "Popocaterpillar VII."

RULES FOR INTERFRATERNITY BOWLING

I. The teams shall be composed of five men each and no one may bowl on any fraternity team who is not a member of said fraternity.

II. If any fraternity fail to present their team of five men on night scheduled before 7:15, said fraternity forfeits the match to their scheduled opponents. If neither team appears intact the match scheduled must, nevertheless, be decided before the next league night. This may be done either by toss, playing at odd times or by other arrangement between two teams. Captains will report to alley manager the presence of his team before 7:15.

IV. The league will buy a regulation score book, in which an official scorekeeper satisfactory to both contesting teams will enter the scores. Payment of pro rata assessment on every fraternity entering a team should be made on the first night each team bowls. The alley manager shall take care of this book.

V. A match shall consist of three games, total pins to count.

VI. The league will be divided into two sections, "Up Hill" and "Down Hill." Each team plays every other team in its section. The team having the highest percentage of games won at the end of the series shall be declared section champion. Finally the two sections will play a series of two out of three matches to determine the College champions.
